American, Gehoes of the Beautiful

[From the Louisville Journal. THE POVERTY OF JESUS.

Oh, Virgin Mother! couldst theu find No fitter cradle for thy Son Than the mean and lowly one Where His infant head reclined.

The Lord of All !- Was there on earth No palace crown'd with stately dome, Where thou couldst feel thyself at home To give the great Redeemer birth ? Oh, Virgin Mother ! thus it was,

Thy son was born to suffer shame,

To bear our sins and woes he came,

Left His high throne to bear the cross ! Oh, Mary ! high favor'd one ! Did not the Angel bid thee "Hail !" And from the future lift the veil

Thou Mother of th' Incarnate Son ? Then what was poverty to thee? While gazing on thy sinless Child, What rays from heaven upon thee smiled, And hallow'd e'en thy law degree !

Ye poor of earth !oh, never more Lament ye for your low estate, Since He, who all things did create, Lived here the porest of the poor!

It was to raise your souls to Heaven That Jesus cuffer'd pain and loss, He bore the shame, and bore the cross, That "all things" might you be given !

The poor and lowly of the earth Heloves with a peculiar love, Who now in glory throned above, Remember well his lowly birth.

Yo are his best-belov'd, ye poor ! And while for spiritual food, He gives you His own flesh and blood Your bread and water shall be sure.

Lift up your weary heads and see The glories of your Heavenly home! There soon your Lord will bid you come, And sing the song of Victory !
